Rudolph Carl Gorman 1994 Like earlier volumes, it describes the preparation of many of Gorman's favourite recipes -- an eclectic selection of offerings by friends and celebrity chefs, as well as traditional Navajo dishes and Gorman's own creations. The 'Taos Table' section celebrates the cuisine of various New Mexican restaurants and the culinary customs of the region. Recipes range from simply prepared basic foods with an original twist to sophisticated preparations that will appeal to the most creative home chef.

Filled with anecdotes, descriptions, and exquisite full-page drawings, this is a feast for the eye, the palate, and the mind. Presented by the foremost Native American artist of our age, will appeal to all who cherish art, entertaining anecdotes, and culinary lore, as well as fine dining and fine books. The 45 drawings reproduced here have not been seen before in publication.

Carole A. Feuerman Carole Feuerman 1999 "Carole A. Feuerman's sculpture combines surrealist technique with a humanist approach to her subjects. This first monograph on her work is filled with David Finn's dramatic photographs covering two decades of her work, including many enlarged details and multiple views, providing a cinematic, almost three-dimensional experience. The work - in resin, cast marble, bronze, and other materials, often painted - ranges from early erotic reliefs through full-scale sculptures of athletes and nudes. Her women at their toilette are sculptural tours-de-force, yet their intimacy recalls Degas's works on similar themes. Recent fragments and body mappings are experiments with abstraction, deconstruction and conceptualism, at the same time that they explore the emotional life of their subjects penetrating to their spirit." "All of Feuerman's work reflects the two aspects of her vision. Her work is motivated by questions about the nature of reality, and her remarkable skill as an artist leads the viewer to the same questions. Yet beyond the simulacrum of reality, Feuerman also manages to convey the feeling behind the intense physicality, the passion and sensuality behind the seemingly mundane pose."--BOOK JACKET.Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc.
