Winnowed Songs for Sunday Schools (Classic Reprint) Ira David Sankey 2016-08-26 Excerpt from Winnowed Songs for Sunday Schools Winnowed songs for Sunday Schools, may be found a number of new Hymns and Tunes never before published, together with a choice selection of the most useful and popular pieces to be found in the whole range of Sunday School Hymnody. While we might have filled every page of this volume with the most classical music of foreign composers, and secured thereby for the book a very limited use and circulation, yet we have not felt called upon to do so. We have, however, retained a number of the most useful and practical of this class of tunes by such composers as dykes, hopkins, sullivan, barnby, hayne and others, but a large majority of the hymns and tunes are by our own American authors, whose Gospel Songs are now being sung around the world in every land where the gospel has been proclaimed or the name of Jesus is known. This book has been compiled especially for Sunday Schools, largely from the same sources of Sacred Song which gave to the world the popular collection known as Gospel Hymns. We invite a careful examination of every page of winnowed songs, believing that the pieces will sing their way into the hearts of the children wherever used. We desire to express our thanks to the large number of authors and composers whose names are found in this collection, for kind permission granted to use copyright pieces. Special thanks are due to Hubert P. Main for valuable assistance in the preparation of this work. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. The Bright Array Robert Lowry 2017-05-18 Excerpt from The Bright Array: A New Collection of Sunday School Songs The success which has attended our endeavors to furnish the best material for the Song Service, is known and recognized by the mass of Sunday Schools in all parts of our land. Millions of our books have gone into the hands of the young people, and multitudes of persons in our churches testify to the salutary impression made upon them in their youth by the singing of these evangelical songs. We have long recognized the fact that the time for imposing inferior productions on the Sunday School has gone by. In the general elevation of the common taste we claim to have had no insignificant share. We have had one unwavering purpose to make the best books for practical use. We have striven to lead the young people through the safe grounds of gospel hymnody, and put into their mouths the melodies that would please them. But in all our leading, we have kept within sight and touch of those who were following us. Songs for the Sunday School (Classic Reprint) E. B. Chappell 2017-05-16 Excerpt from Songs for the Sunday School Few of these songs will be new to the average Sunday school pupil except some of those found in the Primary

Songs. These can be taught easily to the children in the Primary Department. Almost any of the others can be sung at once by a majority of any Sunday school. We suggest, therefore, that leaders seek to avoid the practice which prevails in some Sunday schools of taking a few favorite songs and using them Sunday after Sunday until their power to inspire the singers is lost. The surest way to avoid this is always select the songs in advance of the service, and see that they are suited to the occasion. The Programs for the Sunday School and Devotional Passages have been added because we find among Sunday-school superintendents a widespread demand for such material. These, also, have been chosen with great care. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Good Good Father Chris Tomlin 2016-10-04 Inspired by the #1 hit worship song by Chris Tomlin, this precious story teaches children about our Father God's unconditional love and acceptance and that the only gift God wants is our hearts. Grammy Award-winning music artist, Chris Tomlin, and Pat Barrett (Housefires) team up to tell the story of a little bear named Tucker whose life is forever changed when he learns just how great the King's love is for him. When Tucker's friends need help, he journeys to see the King who lives in a castle where the door is always open. Along the way, Tucker encounters a variety of humorous animals filled with ideas about what the King is like. Then finally, he meets the King who runs to him with open arms. This read-aloud storybook for 4- to 8-year-olds: Shows young children the character of God through a fun adventure story Teaches that God loves His children no matter what Encourages kids to have a relationship with their Heavenly Father and to ask for His help in prayer Sparks family discussions about who God is Makes a calming bedtime read with its warm message of God's caring heart With whimsical art created by Lorna Hussey, this inspiring story will leave children, young and old, reassured that God is a good, good Father, and they are loved by Him. The Portfolio of Sunday School Songs (Classic Reprint) W. F. Sherwin 2018-01-30 Excerpt from The Portfolio of Sunday School Songs To crowd into the limits of a volume of this size all that is desirable in a book of Sunday School Song, so that all tastes shall be gratified and every requirement be met. The editors of the portfolio have sought to compile a work which should fairly meet the demand for such hymns and music as should lend a fresh interest to the service, and give it a new impetus in an upward direction. Their wide experience leads them to believe that the average Sunday Schools in our land will not longer tolerate that which is puerile and meaningless in hymnology, or frivolous in music, and that, on the other hand, they will quite generally be repelled by a scholastic dignity which involves much difficulty in execution. It is hoped that a thorough and candid examination of the portfolio may show it to contain abundance of material, in song and responsive exercises, which will at once engage the interest of all and lift the service to a higher plane. More Than Just a Sunday School Song LeeAnn Mott 2019-08-16 I loved Sunday school because I loved the songs. The songs we sang during my weekly forty-five-minute Sunday school hour taught me about Jesus and love and salvation.

Songs like "Deep and Wide" taught me about the immensity of God's love for me. "This Little Light of Mine" reminded me how Jesus gave me the responsibility to shine my light so others could learn about Him. "The B-I-B-L-E" helped me to understand the importance of reading God's Word and using it to guide my life. "Joy in My Heart" instilled in me that I could have joy, no matter what, because I had Jesus. "The Apostle's Song" not only listed the name of Jesus' disciples but convinced me that I could be Jesus' disciple, too. Christians have a responsibility to search the Scriptures, moving from basic biblical truths to more advanced principles of Christianity, all the while growing in the knowledge and understanding of Jesus Christ. With that being said, however, I think it is helpful as maturing Christians to be reminded of simple truths. It is these basic truths of God's Word that guide us, encourage us, anchor us, and serve as a solid foundation for more study and greater contemplation of Biblical concepts and truths. Children need to learn that "Jesus loves me, this I know," but adults need to be reminded of this beautiful truth as well. I hope you enjoy this adventure as you remember songs you sang as children and hear them in a new and more profound way as maturing Christian adults.
