A Joyful Noise Amy Santi Bull 2013 When troubles arise the first thing we do is pray. We ask the Lord to quickly relieve the pain and suffering of the situation. But how often do we send up prayers of praise and thanksgiving? Let Amy Santi Bull's forty-five poems in this collection lead you on the path to showing the Lord how grateful you are for all He has done in your life. As in her other books, Believe and My Inner Strength, each poem in A Joyful Noise has five Bible verses that coincide with the meaning of the poem. These verses are listed in the Reference section following the poetry and show that praise and thanksgiving were offered to the Lord throughout time. So now, do you have a reason to be thankful? Do you have answered prayers? Then give the Lord the praises He deserves and let Amy's poetry guide you along the way.

The Book of Spiritual Poetry Rev. Charles E. Pullen 2019-01-25 The Book of Spiritual Poetry By: Rev. Charles E. Pullen One night, the Holy Spirit spoke to Rev. Charles E. Pullen while he was at a low point in his life, saying, "You're not going to bed; instead, you're going to write a poem about your life, and it'll help you feel better." Thus, The Book of Spiritual Poetry: Enlightenment was born. Through his writings, Rev. Pullen hopes that each reader will receive vibrant inspiration to know the Lord and develop a personal relationship with Him. And for readers who already know Him, Rev. Pullen hopes his poetry helps them know the Lord more closely and intimately. Enlightenment is the first in a series of books he hopes to publish.

Love Poems from God Various 2002-09-24 Sacred poetry from twelve mystics and saints, rendered brilliantly by Daniel Ladinsky, beloved interpreter of verses by the fourteenth-century Persian poet Hafiz One of 6 Books Oprah Loves to Give as Gifts During the Holidays "All kinds of beautiful poetry." -Hoda Kotb In this luminous collection, Daniel Ladinsky—best known for his bestselling interpretations of the great Sufi poet Hafiz—brings together the timeless work of twelve of the world's finest spiritual writers, six from the East and six from the West. Once again, Ladinsky reveals his talent for creating profound and playful renditions of classic poems for a modern audience. Rumi's joyous, ecstatic love poems; St. Francis's loving observations of nature through the eyes of Catholicism; Kabir's wild, freeing humor that synthesizes Hindu, Muslim, and Christian beliefs; St. Teresa's sensual verse; and the mystical, healing words of Sufi poet Hafiz—these along with inspiring works by Rabia, Meister Eckhart, St. Thomas Aquinas, Mira, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, and Tukaram are all "love poems by God" from writers considered "conduits of the divine." Together, they form a spiritual treasure to cherish always.

Holy Spirit-Inspired Poetry Carol J. Allen 2021-01-04 This book contains much of the poetry written to accompany the weekly sermons at Willow River Baptist Church of Houston under Pastor Al Cabrera. It contains poems written over several years. Pastor Cabrera gave me the sermon scriptures each week to write a related poem to print in the bulletin. Many poems came to me in the middle of the night, and I would quickly rise to put them on paper. Only the Holy Spirit could allow me the words to write.

My Book of Poems for the World Raymond Crhistian 2011-06-10 I hope this book will touch your heart concerning the many attributes of life I have shared with you. Although I do not have a set style of writing I consider myself as being creative and versatile a God given ability and talent to create words with energy and emotions. The variety of poems that are placed in this book are unique in their own way. I pray which ever poem or prose enlightens your heart that you are able to embrace the words and share them with someone else. I pray this book will help you to be able to encourage the life of someone around you and help to change the course of their life. Poetry is a spiritual gift of love concerning the many evolutions and cycles that this world we call the planet earth evolves around. It is a gift of love shared by the muses of ones connectivity to bring an individual or individuals into a glorifying act of happiness and peace through each word, each line, each stanza and ending. What you choose to grasp and take with you concerning my work I pray it will be with you forever. My Book of Poems for the World is a mixture of my work. According to how you feel at the time you pick up the book to read it. I am certain you will thumb through the pages and say to yourself, I like this one or that one. Just remember that any poem or prose you choose it is definitely up to your liking. You will enjoy them all but everyone has a favorite. I expressed many emotions and feelings in this book concerning the poetry and prose enclosed. You will find poems and prose of, love, romance, humor, spiritual enlightenment, poems and prose for just a little food for thought. On the spiritual side of it all I must say that the prose, Just One More Soul is one of my best works. It deals with the lost soul and how you must seek God for yourself. There is also, A Penny for Your Thoughts quite controversial yet it leads you to a higher power as one would say reminding you in the process of course there is only one true God. If you would go deeper into the book and study it carefully I am certain that you are going to run across what I consider a little food for thought a prose I have written titled, My Shoes, My Bed, My Table if you really have a heart ticking in your body once you finish this one prose I am certain you will become more involved in what is taking place with those who are in need of assistance. Not just the homeless but the widows, orphans and strangers who you turn your backs on daily. I Cry from the Womb is based on the awareness all mothers should have due to their ability to bring life into this world, a child crying for their mothers protection (sensitive and touching). Although I do not consider myself to be a controversial writer I understand that some of my work does take some people into deep thought(meaning critics) and will cause them to think otherwise. I must state because of my love for all mankind I only write what I know to be factual and true, what I have experienced and what I have researched in order that the truth does not get distorted. Prose like The Whip, An Unpaid Debt, The Dim Light of Justice and a few others may spark a few thoughts concerning your creed, color or religious background. I state it is time for a positive change to occur and if my work begins to reopen the doors of concern for everyone to put their cards on the table and show their hands then there is not a need to vote.

Poems of the Lord Gerald M. Truss 2013-10-11 This is a gift from me to you sent by God to help us through.

Quiet Time Poems David Edwin Hall 2014-11-06 Every day, there are treasures to be discovered by anyone who will honestly come to hear the voice of the Savior in his Word. The Lord Jesus indicates that there is an added blessing for those who will write down the insights he gives by his instruction: Every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old (Matthew 13:52). The poems in this book are the result of going to the Bible each day with an expectation that God has something very valuable to say. That expectation has NEVER been disappointed. Our risen Lord said, I stand at the door and knock. If any man hears My voice and opens the door, I will come into him and will sup with him, and he with Me (Revelation 3:20). This intimate, two-way communion with God is offered to all those who have received the Lord Jesus Christ (John 1:12) and thereby have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God (1 Corinthians 2:12). My prayer is that God may use this book for his glory, for the encouragement of his own children, and for the persuasion of those who may yet be awakened to their need of our Savior. Blessed is the man that heareth Me, watching daily at My gates, waiting at the post of My doors (Proverbs 8:34). Heaven is waiting. Dont miss it for the world.

To God Be the Glory LaReine Miller 2008-03 TO GOD BE THE GLORY is my tribute to the Heavenly Father who has granted me the gift of poetic inspiration—a gift I cherish dearly. I had to stop last year (then 1997) and ask God how He wanted me to use this gift. He answered me by allowing me to create 15 poems in 11 days that I was expected to share with others—which, of course, I did. Without this gift, I could not share with you what a few have had an opportunity to read. Thank You, Lord God. The poems contained in this volume were written as thoughts of God's goodness and mercy, His love and compassion, and His overwhelming grace were made evident to me through my life or the lives of people He brought my way. I would be remiss not to give Him the glory. I can never thank Him enough for the blessing that He has allowed my words to be for the people these poems were presented to or with whom I was allowed to share them. OUR HEAVENLY FATHER has given each of us special gifts. Many of us choose to play around with them, but never use them to enhance His kingdom. He's given everyone of us talents that are uniquely ours. Yes, some of us can draw, sing, dance, write, cook, heal, and/or entertain others. All of us have some God-given gift that has endeared us to someone else, even if it's nothing more than caring and taking care of one's fellow person. Don't waste or take for granted the abilities that God has given you. For if you fail to use them for the good of this world, you will find yourself without them. Share your gifts with others. No matter how insignificant they may appear to be to you, they may prove to be a blessing for someone else to enjoy. God Bless!

Poems from a Higher Place Donna M. Heinzen 2015-05-19 Jesus speaks to all of us through the Holy Spirit. He speaks to all of us in different ways. About a year ago, He started speaking to me through poetry. Many of these poems speak about improvements I need to make in my own life, with my husband, children, or other areas. These poems are overflowing with the love and teaching Jesus has for us and reminders of what we all need to do to stay closer to Him. Jesus told me to share these poems with you so that you would learn from them and grow in your love for our Lord. We have such a loving God. I give all glory, honor, and praise to him. I hope you enjoy this first collection. I want to thank my husband, Eric, for his loving guidance, knowledge, insight, added faith, and encouragement for this book. But most of all, I want to thank him for showing me the way to everlasting life and for teaching me what it means to have a personal relationship with Jesus and to have a recreated spirit.

Poems of the Bridge Richard Alan Ruof 2008-05-14 POEMS OF THE BRIDGE presents incidents and insights from experiences that the author found enlightening during a lifetime of service as a pastor and family man. The use of poetry allows presentation in brief form and helps reveal the amazing acts of God in everyday life. A simple factual statement would only invite attempts to explain away the unexplainable. And so they are presented as faith experiences that simply arise among believers inspired by the promises of Christ and the Scriptures. The poems also question who this amazing martyr is who enters our confusing and modern world to bring compassion, understanding, and restore the bridge between divided couples, family members, and warring factions—even those we shall join again in a world beyond death. So much of what is precious has been neglected in search of money, belongings, and real estate. Shall we forget forever family solidarity, love, faith, those matters most rewarding and our constant source of joy? Or shall we turn from shopping, shallow entertainment, material obsession to rediscover our true identity? Shall we take time to consider those treasures offered to us forever? The strain of the world has a way of unveiling false assumptions and presenting the need for that final bridge. Our quest for a stable world falters daily. In an effort to achieve everything by human efforts, our age has given its respect to the clever, powerful, and worldly and put aside the lovely miracles of the God of compassion and eternal blessings. God still rewards those who continue in Christ's faith and service. Yet in a broader spectrum POEMS OF THE BRIDGE rejects the prevailing philosophic viewpoint of positivism advocating that neither God nor the spiritual has any effect upon the course of history, the plight of the human race, or individual persons. The Spiritual Mirror for the Soul Richard Kamurasi 2007-05-31 The Spiritual Mirror for the soul is the Bible and an open Holy Book of how God truly sees us. For it exposes the error in our thinking and actions and destroys our self righteous fantasies. As Christians, the Spiritual Mirror is a reflection of freedom, peace and joy to have faith in God and lead a righteous path. This inspirational Christian Poetry is biblical to teach, rebuke, correct and train you in righteousness All the poems invoke you to salvation, restoration, hope, encouragement, prosperity and spiritual growth. We are Gods children predestined for the purpose of His will. I pray that out of Gods glorious riches He may strengthen you with power through His spirit in your inner being.

Meditations and Musings Linda M. Forehand 2012-06 Meditations and Musings is a collection of poems and thoughts written over the last few years (with the Holy Spirit's guiding). It is an insight into the strengths and struggles of a Christian's life, be it thanksgiving, blessings, grief, the wonders of nature, assurance of salvation, the holiness of God, depression, trials and tribulations, rededication, and with a slight emphasis on the elderly and problems of Alzheimer's disease. The hundred or so poems and thoughts are short and easy to read. They were written with the hope they will be a blessing and a comfort to the reader. Between the Earth and Spirit World Jessica Buggy Whispers in the Wind Edna Anderson Cooper 2021-07-07 God began to speak to her in visions, dreams and daily events which inspired her through the Holy Spirit to write what was given to her through poems. Some of these poems were "birthed" out of the storms and experiences that she has gone through. Her prayer is that you receive a "gift" as you read each poem. Also, her prayer is that you will read the poems and they will act as a "balm" to heal your pain and encourage you to accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior of your life!

Written for You Miguel De La Cruz 2021-12-07 God, life, and questions. For many more questions than answers. Please read this book, for there is one prose poem written for you. Written for You is a book with prose poems recited by Pastor Sam Iglesias, then a Bible verse followed by his homily. They are linked together for continuity; this allows the reflection of the word of God and how it will enable you to understand the Lord's grace. The Lord has not changed and what was is still today. Find God, in his words, in the Holy Bible. Your starting point of building your faith and trust. Written for You is written in the hope that it may affect you profoundly, so it may show you that the word of our Lord is relevant in your life; continue to learn and teach the word, serve the Lord. Allow yourself to be a teacher, allow the Holy Spirit to be present. Jesus said, "Wherever you may go in the world, tell all of the good news." Pastor Sam gives you the good news, for the Lord commands him, as it is commanded for you to share the good news with all. Written for You is only a key; it can open the door, but you must choose from the two alternatives, the world or the word. We must pray for the grace, valor, and wisdom. When we surrender and submit to his authority, then the true purpose of who you are will be revealed and allow you to see the light, so you may worship the Lord in his splendor and do his will.

Poems for the Heart of God Darrell Hausmann 2019-08-26 It seems I am best at expressing my love for the Lord through music and poetry, and so out of that longing came the desire to pen "Poems for the Heart of God." I wanted to share something that gave me great joy and encouragement, with others. I wanted to write something that would implant a seed and inspire communication with our Master, especially as we begin our day. Oh, how important is a moment with Him before we step out into the fast-paced world we live in today! "Poems for the Heart of God" is a 366-day (including leap year) devotional with a scripture reading from His word, accompanied by a six-line poem for each day of the year. It is written in a way to receive from Him through scripture and a way to give back to Him in a personal heartfelt way. Each poem was written from my heart to His heart, acknowledging His love and care, as a Good Father, every day of life. Many like to look up their birthdays, their anniversaries, and other special days to see what God may have to say to them on that day. It is a daily seed planter of encouragement for my family and me to help us get off to a good start for the day. I pray it will be the same for you.

Wheels Turning Inward Ron Starbuck 2010 Wheels Turning Inward is a rich collection of over fifty poems, following a poet's mythic and spiritual journey that begins and ends in Christ, but crosses easily onto the paths of many other contemplative traditions. Ultimately, this is a journey of discovering a keen sense of spiritual community through a meditative dialog with the Divine. Each poem is a reflection and a remembrance of this dialog, arising out of a conversation that is deep and true, a conversation grounded in a sacramental practice of stillness, silence, peace, and unity celebrating the holiness of all creation. Through the poet's voice and eyes, we catch sight of the clear longing of God for all humankind, and the true value of relationships through which we come to know and become known by this mystery. Every poem will gently guide the reader on a journey that leads to an awareness of the sacred calling out to life. Celebrating life in the first breath of an infant, in the bright smile of a little girl, and in the light of creation reflected within the innocent eyes of a small boy. It may also appear in the complex song of a mockingbird mending together the deepest sorrows of the world, or in the angels we give birth to every day. These poems touch and awaken the compassion inherent in every human heart, and remind us that God's presence, however, we may imagine God, may be found within our own breath. In each single breath we take. Breathe Deeply. Turn Inward.

All About Life Johnny Albritton Jr. 2012-03-26 With an intensity of understanding and a straightforward wisdom, Johnny Albritton, Jr. writes poetry that is, indeed, All About Life. In this, his debut collection of published verses, Mr. Albritton examines the spiritual and physical life of man, and how one deals with each from day to day. His poems burst forth with images about everyday life that range in theme from criticizing apathy to celebrating ones newfound relationship with the Lord. It is not often readers of fine religious poetry get to absorb a mans vision of the world that is not condescending but uplifting in its intent. Johnny Albritton, Jr. certainly achieves that, and much more. The poet recognizes that he and his readers have to answer to God every day, but how to do that is the key. Are hearts opened in joyful song? Or are the lower depths of society, those that can only cause harm, sought out? In poems such as Job the Man, Chasing After the Wind, and Whats Going On? to name but a few, Mr. Albrittons keen wit, sensitive lament, and defined optimism are clear. In others, such as What Happened to Justice? and A Prayer for Mankind, he continues to boldly clarify todays state of affairs as he sees it, whether good or bad, right or wrong. Whatever your present state of mind, the poems in All About Life, by Johnny Albritton, Jr., have that unique ability to entertain inform and enlighten. Johnny Albritton Jr, grew up in New Jersey, attended Lincoln Tech Trade School, and later served in the United States Navy. An athlete when younger, he earned a four year scholarship to Tennessee State University before enjoying his lifelong self-employed business of appliance refrigeration and air conditioning service. He also enjoys inventing and of course writing poetry from his home in Florida.

Biblical Truths in Poetry HOPE E. BURNS 2011-07-01 These poems deal mostly with Biblical issues. Some address our human condition based on the Scriptures. Others deal with unseen influences that many of us are unaware of, but which impact our lives for better or worse. They were written as a result of 21 years of studying the Bible. Originally my journey into the Scriptures began as I sought solutions to my own problems. However over the years it has become a quest for answers to lifes deeper issues. When I began reading the Bible I did not believe I would find solutions to my problems. I started reading it out of desperation after I had exhausted books on philosophy and the occult and just about anything else I got my hands on. I read many books promising the secret but they disappointed me. It is really astonishing that a book which just about everyone has sitting around really has the answer to every human need. I wrote these poems because I came to the realization that many people like me years ago, do not believe in the spiritual. And yet I believe it is evident that if we disregard Biblical teachings about the spiritual realms, life simply does not make a lot of sense. However it is also my experience that many people who claim to be spiritual do not understand what the Bible teaches about the spiritual realm that operates in the earth. These poems were also written for people who have difficulty reading and understanding the Scriptures. I try to clarify misunderstanding about many important Biblical issues such as Hell and pre-destination. They are written in simple poetic language for the benefit of anyone who is interested in Biblical Truth. The Columbia Granger's Guide to Poetry Anthologies William A. God's Agenda - Religious Poems Richard I. Gold 2016-10-04 God's Agenda - Religious Poems: Vol 1 By Richard I. Gold God's Agenda - Religious Poems contains a number of poems about God, Jesus Christ, our relationship with God, and our relationship with our fellow men, all in accordance with the Bible. At several points, two or more poems have the same title, but they were kept in because they are different poems. In other cases, several poems may appear to be somewhat similar; however, the focus is slightly different. Sometimes, a poem may require several readings to get the full meaning. At times, the meaning may be more than the author put into them and the reader may find some ideas which will benefit him or her. In all cases, the meaning of the poem should be taken to help build our faith and hope for the future, both in this life and when we have crossed to the other side. Remember, if we have a loved one who has passed on and is in the next life, they are in a better and more fulfilling place. It is well that we mourn for them, but this should be for our lack of seeing them, not for the fate of the loved one.

The Great Poems of the Bible James L. Kugel 2012-04-24 From the Psalms to the Prophets, from job to Ecclesiastes, much of the Bible is written in poetry. The poems of the Bible include some of its best known and most beloved passages: "The Lord is my shepherd," "Let justice roll down like waters," "By the rivers of Babylon," "Remember your Creator," "Arise, shine, for thy light is come!" These poems live in the hearts of those who are familiar with the Bible and offer rich rewards to anyone who is approaching the world's greatest book for the first time. In The Great Poems of the Bible, Harvard scholar James Kugel presents original translations of the most beautiful and important poems of the Scripture. Taken together, these poems represent the very essence of the Hebrew Bible. Reading them one after another is like taking a guided tour through Scripture, meeting firsthand some of its most important teachings and opening the way to an understanding of the Bible as a whole. Each poem is accompanied by an eloquent and accessible explanation of the poem's language, and a reflection on its meaning. These learned, compact essays introduce readers to the broader spiritual world of ancient Israel. What did people in biblical times believe about God? Where is a person's soul located and what does it do? Is there an afterlife? How does one come to "know" God? Why wasn't Eve meant to be Adam's "helpmate" (Kugel shows how this was just a translator's slip-up), and what does the Bible have to say about the role of women? Kugel's sparkling translations of the poems, together with the fascinating insights that accompany them, distill the very best that the Bible and modern scholarship have to offer. Kugel brings new life to some of history's greatest poems, and offers a new look at a Bible we thought we already knew. Here, in one volume, is a "Bible's bible" that belongs in every home.

The Lords and The New Creatures Jim Morrison 2030-12-31 Intense, erotic, and enigmatic, Jim Morrison's persona is as riveting now as the lead singer/composer "Lizard King" was during The Doors' peak in the late sixties. His fast life and mysterious death remain controversial more than twenty years later. The Lords and the New Creatures, Morrison's first published volume of poetry, is an uninhibited exploration of society's dark side -- drugs, sex, fame, and death -- captured in sensual, seething images. Here, Morrison gives a revealing glimpse at an era and at the man whose songs and savage performances have left their indelible impression on our culture.

Much Blessings Sheila E. E. Hall 2012-04-13 Much Blessings These poems that I share with you came from the depths of my experience and inner spirit. My reliable pen, which is always at my side, easily flowed across the paper as I poured my heart out with each word. I have opened my up my heart and life to be a witness to my Lord and Savior. I hope these words inspire you to walk in the light. Put your faith in God and let Him take you by the hand and lead you to the light of all truth. May your spirit be receptive to the writings on these pages with an understanding of how our Lord and Savior touched my life, and how he will do the same for you.

No Heaven on Earth Tamesa Cox 2006-07 DO YOU BELIEVE THAT THERE IS NO HEAVEN ON EARTH? THE AUTHOR, TAMESA COX, DISCOVERS THROUGH THE SPIRITUAL AND EARTHLY EXPERIENCES THAT THE PERFECT PEACE THAT WE LONG FOR ON EARTH WILL NEVER BE. THERE IS SOME PEACE ON EARTH BUT NOT AS IN THE MYSTERIOUS PLACE WE SOME KNOW AS HEAVEN. In No Heaven On Earth, this new inspirational author, Tamesa Cox elaborates on her life experiences, dreams, and accomplishments to show the readers that life on earth is what you make of it. This new author's goal is to fish for as many unsaved and saved readers across the world. Dedicated to her mother, Karen Ann Gamble/Wheelock, Tamesa Cox wanted her mother's name, teachings, and memories to be remembered in the most positive manner. Giving was one of Karen Ann Gamble/Wheelock's strongest traits, which was passed down to this talented author, Tamesa Cox. This book is a gift to people at freewill. According to Tamesa Cox whatever gift or talent you have it should never be hidden or buried but rather shared with all of God's people. Tamesa believes that God will reward you in Heaven about doing his will on Earth. The author closes her first of many books with the scripture: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths (Proverbs 3: 5,6 KJV)."

Awesome Lord Michael Friedemann 2012-11 As we know, the Bible is written in many translations, all saying the same thing, but in different words. AWESOME LORD, while not a biblical translation, also cites portions of the Bible in an entirely different version - POETRY! For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son. With His Son our salvation begun. For whoever believes in Him shall not perish. But have everlasting life with God to cherish. John 3:16 You can also read some of the well known prayers in the Bible such as "The Lord's Prayer", "The Beatitudes", "The Twenty Third Psalm", and "Jesus Praying in the Garden" and many others. There are miracles written in poetry such as "Feeding of the Five Thousand", "Jesus Walking on the Water", "Jesus Turning Water into Wine", and the "Raising of Lazarus". These are just "highlights". These are poems of praise and thanksgiving written in everyday language. This is a unique spiritual book with a special approach to prayer. A great gift! A book for the whole family to read and enjoy. AWESOME LORD, stimulates meditation and prayer. A GREAT FAMILY DEVOTION BOOK!

Poems of Praise and Worship Shane Dale Anders 2006-12 Most people would define poetry as the rhythm of words or the rambling of one's thoughts. To me, it is not just making words rhyme or the ramblings of thoughts, but rather, putting into words and expressing the deepest feelings of a person's heart. To be enjoyed, poems do not have to contain any type of rhythmic beat, but rather, an arrangement of verses to convey to us beauty and eloquence. For example, Hebrew poetry in the Old Testament, from the book of Job through Song of Solomon, was written to show us the love, wisdom and the awesome power of the almighty God. The poems which I have written were inspired from verses recorded in the Bible. It is my hope that this book will encourage the Christian believer to develop and exercise a spiritual discipline in their every day walk with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

My Soul Doth Magnify the Lord Mary Wisham Fenstermacher 2012-11-29 Do you sometimes feel that you are at the top of the world? Are you amazed at the beauty surrounding you in God's majestic creation—the sky, the mountains, the valleys, and the rivers? Does the rush and roar of the ocean waves tingle through your whole being as you watch and listen? Does the coming of the seasons—Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter—arouse your senses and awaken your joy of anticipation? These are some of the feelings and experiences expressed in the poetic verse found in this collection of inspirational poems and devotionals. Poems such as "Morning's Dawn," "Autumn Song," and "Evening at Sunset" will take you to those quiet moments of peace and serenity that everyone needs along the way. "Seascape" and "Seashore Symphony" will remind you of the mighty powers our great Creator wields over the universe. Such poems as "Be Strong," "Hold Fast," "A Pilgrim's Prayer," and "Heaven" speak to the heart and soul of human agony and distress. There is hope! It is found in the Savior of humankind ... the Creator of the world ... the friend that sticketh closer than a brother. That hope is found in Jesus Christ—Immanuel, God with us! Filled with pertinent Scriptures of timeless wisdom and comfort, this book of poems and devotionals is designed to lift your spirits during any day or season. Join the author as she magnifies the Lord with Scripture and poetic verse! "I will bless the Lord at all times: His praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together." —Psalm 34:1-3

The Favor of My Lord Denise Sobilo 2021-05-25 The primal metaphor has been transposed as sleep an affiance with death eludes for death defective is but sleep. Alludes to resurrection now: a dawning rosed in bloody-red genesis, predisposed to whited hues dazzling out in amplitudes. In a debut collection of inspirational poems, Denise Sobilo invites readers to awaken to the Presence of the Divine through her introspective and often philosophical reflections. Sobilo, whose poetry is inspired by both scripture and other writings, shares lyrical insight reflected in verse that touches on many themes and subjects including the blood-sacrifice wounds of salvific love, the absolution that surrounds a death bed, a feast that sates the soul's appetencies and satisfies the mind, a mother's spirit that rises to heaven again, and a potter's wheel under a dervish hand. The Favor of My Lord is a unique volume of poetry which provides an insightful perception of the spiritual aspects of this world that will inspire believers and non-believers alike to a deeper introspection and understanding of their own relationships with God.

The Spirit of the Lord Is Upon Me Shirley Ann Little 2017-08-15 Yes! The Spirit of the Lord is upon me! He has anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor, the afflicted, and to help mend the broken hearts that are everywhere. Yes! The Spirit of the Lord is upon me to comfort all those who mourn, to give them a mantle of praise instead of a spirit of fainting, and to tell the captives they are free! There is no condemnation when the Son has set them free! Yes! Whom the Son sets free is free indeed. Jesus spoke from the book of Isaiah in his Fathers temple that the Spirit of the Lord was upon Him. He read out loud to the Jewish people from the book of Isaiah 61:1. But when he got to the next verse, he only read a part of it. He stopped at to proclaim the favorable year of the Lord. He closed the book and handed it back to the attendant. Then he looked straight into the peoples faces and told them that they were looking at the scripture being fulfilled right before their very eyes. If he had read the rest of the verse, he would have read and the day of vengeance of our God. However, he did try to soften the blow by merely reading a part of that verse. But that didnt work either. They sat there gazing at him and saying, Is this not Josephs boy?
