A Mishmash Paddywhack Tragic Mishap 2012-03-01 A Mishmash Paddywhack establishes a highly original, thoughtful and comprehensive conservative vision for the twenty-something generation written by a rare conservative member of it. The book is structured as a collection of issue-driven non-fiction essays alternating with satirical fiction, all focused on the intersection of religion and politics in the United States. Essay topics include abortion, marriage, gender roles, poverty, economics, immigration, theology, politics, science, education, and much more. The fiction delightfully pokes fun at the same issues through the eyes of Christian and Western history while embarking on a journey from the Garden of Eden and back again. Together the fiction and non-fiction weaves a messily consistent perspective on many of the most important issues of our day. Poems and Prayers from the Heart Craig Kiehl 2009-03 It started with a prayer and was answered at the crooked tree. It is a journey of approximately eight years, as the Holy Spirit placed this poetry in the heart of a man who prayed a simple prayer and asked, Why is life so hard? These poems show us God's love, provision and his promises for all mankind. They speak about issues we all face in life and there are many scripture references which proclaim God's thoughts and purpose for every one. Craig Kiehl was raised in Oxford CT. and has been a machinist for thirty-five years. He is married, with three children and twin granddaughters. He moved his family to Gordonsville, TN in 1999 and in the year of 2000 started writing poetry. He is a Graduate of Gateway of Hope Bible Leadership and Ministry School. Into the Light James Elkins 2005-03 I was inspired to write In The Mind Of A Poet, after becoming a member of the International Society Of Poets. In my book I wrote about my family. On page 17 my son Preston Nelson III, the death of my best friend, how my mother died when I was born, my divorce, getting my life back together with my new husband (Until Death Do Us Part), dealing with the stress of life. How to stay focused and believing in a Higher Power, I've had many book signings and not one reader was disappointed. I've received many letters from satisfied fans. One night while I was at Barnes & Noble promoting my book a lady was standing at the cash register buying my book with tears in her eyes. I walked by after reading from my book on the loud speaker. She told me how touched she was after she read the poem about my life story, she said she never gave up, and took care of her two children, just as I did. She said she would tell every one about my book. My book was recognized and signed by the former Governor of VA. The Hon. L Douglas Wilder and The Hon. Robert Scott of Congress and Martin Luther King III. My poems were acknowledged by The International Library Of Poetry by making a verbally recorded CD in my honor. I was also given four awards for outstanding achievements by the Editor's choice awards. The poem 911 told how my daughter now Major Tonya Nelson survived the attack at the Pentagon, which won me three trophies. The book has received national attention. President George Bush and the chairman and CEO Ken Lewis of Bank of America wrote me encouraging my writing. My book is in the Norfolk Public Library. I was on the front page of my local newspaper. The public support has been overwhelming and gratifying. One of my co-workers told me the other day her daughter's grades have improved since she read Satisfied By Just Getting By. My book has touched many lives it gives me great joy that I can make a difference in the lives of others. Please feel free to email me after reading my book at htpublications@aol.com.

Humanity and the Nature of Man Ebsen William Amarteifio 2013-06-11 This book is about the invaluable contribution of charities and humanitarians in our world, the benevolence of the majority, and the atrocities of a (very small) minority. Mankind's difficulties often stem from natural disasters, including terrible weather conditions creating human misery. The tsunami and the famine in Ethiopia are typical examples. The other difficulties that have beset humanity from time immemorial are man-made, like wars, slavery, and pogroms. We also have dictatorships, pariah states, and police states, which do not seek to serve their people and alienate the international community. The people in these places become outcasts, despite genuine and determined efforts by others to bring them into the fold. In any society, we see the destructive effects of misunderstanding, greed, envy, hatred, and discrimination. Senseless acts of individual barbarism also pose a problem. Governments, democratic or otherwise, are installed with all the natural and human resources, as well as the goodwill of the global community, to serve and, where necessary, manage the difficulties of the people. History and current affairs indicate that no government is capable of delivering utopia to its people even those unhampered by ideology, political sensitivities, self-interest, and retribution. Mankind's difficulties are ever so complex. Invariably, the void left has to be managed for mankind to have a life worth living. Nature abhors a vacuum, so says the adage. Political stalwarts like Abraham Lincoln and courageous clergymen William Wilberforce rise to the fore. This pious hegemony is ably supported by charities, humanitarians, and ordinary individuals who have shown courage and compassion and the willingness to save and improve lives. Charities continue to make the difference. The courage and compassion of Lincoln, Wilberforce, Nightingale, and Mother Teresa may be unsurpassed, but Providence will continue to provide heroes and heroines for humanity.
